Paper Presentation by Aditya Thakkar and Divyesh Jilka in International Conference on Recent Advances in Mechanical Engineering
(ICRAME 2020)

Aditya Thakkar and Divyesh Jilka, students of B.Tech. Semester-VIII, Mechanical Engg. Department, SPCE presented a research paper Condition Monitoring Techniques in Thermal Power Plants in International Conference on Recent Advances in Mechanical Engineering (ICRAME 2020) organized by Andhra University College of Engineering (AUCE), Visakhapatnam from 26-28 February 2020. This paper is based on B.Tech. Project work of the students currently in progress at ADANI Dahanu Thermal Power Station, Dahanu Road, M.S. under the guidance of Prof. Parag Muley, Mechanical Engg. Dept., SPCE. The students also received valuable guidance from Mr. H.M. Bari, Sr. Manager, CM Cell, ADTPS, Dahanu Road, M.S. for their project. The full research paper is submitted to organizers of ICRAME 2020 for publication after peer review. The students were encouraged under TEQIP-III to participate in this reputed international conference for presenting their research paper.

This prestigious conference was attended by eminent scientists as Dr. P. Anil Kumar, Scientist, Naval Science-F, RCI Hyderabad and Shri P.V.S. Ganesh Kumar, Outstanding Scientist, Naval Science & Technological Laboratory (NSTL)-VSP who delivered their informative key note lectures. Mr. UVV Janardhan, Vizag Steel Plant (VSP) delivered key note lecture on Thermography. Many senior academicians and scholars as Dr. Sudheer Siddapureddy, IIT Dharwad, Dr. M.V.A. Raju Bahubalendruni, NIT, Puducherry, Dr. Kaushik Kumar, Birla Institute of Technology, Mesra, Ranchi, Prof. Siba Sankar Mahapatra, MED, NIT, Rourkela also attended the conference and presented their research work in ICROME 2020. The Conference was concluded with Valedictory function in the august presence of Organizing Committee of ICROME 2020, AUCE, Visakhapatnam and all the delegates of ICROME-2020.

The abstract of paper presented by our students was published in the Conference Souvenir (pp.129-130). The full paper is accepted for publication in the Journal of Conference Proceedings after peer review. We, the Students, Staff and Faculty of SPCE congratulate our students Divyesh Jilka and Aditya Thakkar for their academic achievement under the guidance of Prof. Parag Muley, SPCE and wish them great success.
